

Tennessee Guide to the Selection and Design of Stormwater Best Management Practices (BMPs)

A Guide for Phase II MS4 Communities for Protecting Post-construction Stormwater Quality and Managing Stormwater Flow

Prepared by

Bruce A. Tschantz, Timothy R. Gangaware, & Robert G. Morton
Tennessee Water Resources Research Center
The University of Tennessee
Knoxville, Tennessee 37996

for

Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation
Division of Water Pollution Control
Nashville, Tennessee

with funding provided by

Tennessee Department of Agriculture
Tennessee Nonpoint Source Pollution Program
Administration and Grants
Nashville, Tennessee

and

U. S. Environmental Protection Agency
(EPA Publication No. 904-B-02-900)

March 2003

This project is funded, in part, under an agreement with the Tennessee Department of Agriculture, Nonpoint Source Program and U. S. Environmental Protection Agency, Assistance Agreement No. C9994674-98-1.

Although the activity and material referenced in this publication has been financed, in part, with State and/or federal funds, the mention of trade names or commercial products does not constitute endorsement or recommendation by the state, Environmental Protection Agency or the Tennessee Water Resources Research Center.

The material contained in this manual is not copyrighted so that communities can freely adapt and use the information to meet their local needs. However, users are encouraged to cite and list all applicable reference sources.